Plastic Surgery

1. Reconstructive Plastic Surgery

This type of surgery focuses on restoring function and appearance due to injury, disease, birth defects, or medical treatments.

- Burn Reconstruction Skin grafts and tissue expansion for burn victims
- Cleft Lip and Palate Surgery Corrects birth defects affecting the mouth and nose
- Breast Reconstruction After mastectomy (breast cancer treatment)
- Hand Surgery For conditions like carpal tunnel syndrome, congenital defects, or injuries
- Scar Revision Surgery Reduces the appearance of scars from injuries or surgeries
- Skin Cancer Removal & Reconstruction Removes cancerous growths and repairs the skin
- Facial Fracture Repair Corrects broken bones in the face after trauma
- Microsurgery Includes tissue or nerve repair using a microscope

2. Cosmetic (Aesthetic) Plastic Surgery

This focuses on enhancing appearance and is often elective.

Facial Procedures

- Rhinoplasty (Nose Job) Reshapes the nose
- Facelift (Rhytidectomy) Reduces wrinkles and sagging skin
- Blepharoplasty (Eyelid Surgery) Removes excess skin from eyelids
- Brow Lift Elevates the eyebrows to reduce forehead wrinkles
- Otoplasty (Ear Surgery) Reshapes protruding or misshapen ears
- Chin and Cheek Augmentation Implants to improve facial contours

Body Contouring Procedures

- Liposuction Removes excess fat from areas like the abdomen, thighs, arms
- Tummy Tuck (Abdominoplasty) Removes excess skin and tightens abdominal muscles
- Brazilian Butt Lift (BBL) Enhances buttocks using fat transfer
- Thigh Lift / Arm Lift Removes excess skin and tightens these areas

Breast Procedures

- Breast Augmentation Enhances breast size with implants or fat transfer
- Breast Reduction Reduces breast size to relieve discomfort
- Breast Lift (Mastopexy) Lifts sagging breasts

Non-Surgical Procedures

- Botox & Fillers Reduce wrinkles and add volume
- Chemical Peels Improve skin texture and tone
- Laser Treatments For skin resurfacing, hair removal, or scar reduction